AUGUST 7TH, 2022 19TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

CYCLE C (LUKE)

Faith of Our Fathers: Scott Hahn Reflects on the Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Readings:

Wisdom 18:6–9

Psalms 33:1, 12, 18–22

Hebrews 11:1–2, 8–19

Luke 12:35–40

We are born of the faith of our fathers, descending from a great cloud of witnesses whose faith is attested to on every page of Scripture (see Hebrews 12:1). We have been made His people, chosen for His own inheritance, as we sing in this Sunday's Psalm. The Liturgy this week sings the praises of our fathers, recalling the defining moments in our "family history." In the Epistle, we remember the calling of Abraham; in the First Reading we relive the night of the Exodus and the summons of the holy children of Israel. Our fathers, we are told, trusted in the Word of God, put their faith in His oaths. They were convinced that what He promised, He would do. None of them lived to see His promises made good. For it was not until Christ and His Church that Abraham's descendants were made as countless as the stars and sands (see Galatians 3:16–17, 29). It was not until His Last Supper and the Eucharist that "the sacrifice . . . the divine institution" of that first Passover was truly fulfilled. And now we too await the final fulfillment of what God has promised us in Christ. As Jesus tells us in this week's Gospel, we should live with our loins girded—as the Israelites tightened their belts, cinched up their long robes and ate their Passover standing, vigilant and ready to do His will (see Exodus 12:11; 2 Kings 4:29). The Lord will come at an hour we do not expect. He will knock on our door (see Revelation 3:20), inviting us to the wedding feast in the better homeland, the heavenly one that our fathers saw from afar, and which we begin to taste in each Eucharist. As they did, we can wait with "sure knowledge," His Word like a lamp lighting our path (see Psalm 119:105). Our God is faithful, and if we wait in faith, hope in His kindness, and love as we have been loved, we will receive His promised blessing and be delivered from death.

Thank you to Dr. Scott Hahn and the St. Paul Center for the use of the weekly Mass reflections. More resources are available at www.stpaulcenter.com

DEACON SAVIO'S FAREWELL THANK YOU!

My dearest St. Boniface friends, I have come to the end of my stay with you. I am leaving this parish with wonderful memories and experiences that will take me through my priesthood. I thank you from the bottom of my heart for your warmth, your support, your love, and friendship which you have shown me over the past year, and especially on the day of my ordination; I truly appreciate it and I am most grateful.

During my stay here, I have been praying for all of you and for your intentions in every sacrifice of the mass that I had the good fortune and privilege of participating in. I promise to continue praying for you and I request you to also keep me in your prayers.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank Fr. Peter, Fr. Sherwin, our parish secretary, Felicita, Bryan, Judith and Nelia for so much that they have done for me during my stay here. I am most grateful.

I thank you all very much and raise my most ardent prayers to the Almighty, that He may bless you and grant you lots of happiness and good health as you journey through your pilgrimage on earth, to heaven.

Deacon Savio Bruto da Costa

Thank you

THANK YOU TO THE ORGANIZING COMMITTEE

We would like to extend our heart felt thanks to everyone who helped in organizing Deacon Savio's farewell reception last Sunday. We had beautiful weather and a great turnout.

A great big thank you to the Parish Organizing Committee for the food donations, and for the many other ways that you have contributed.

A special thank you to our volunteers who helped with the set-up and clean up after the event.

Please visit our website at: stbonifacesc@archtoronto.org for pictures from Deacon's farewell reception.
