Readings:

Exodus 34:4–6, 8–9

Daniel 3:52–56

2 Corinthians 13:11–13

John 3:16–18

We often begin Mass with the prayer from today's Epistle:

"The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with all of you." We praise the God who has revealed Himself as a Trinity, a communion of persons. Communion with the Trinity is the goal of our worship—and the purpose of the salvation history that begins in the Bible and continues in the Eucharist and sacraments of the Church. We see the beginnings of God's self-revelation in today's First Reading, as He passes before Moses and cries out His holy name. Israel had sinned in worshipping the golden calf (see Exodus 32). But God does not condemn them to perish. Instead He proclaims His mercy and faithfulness to His covenant. God loved Israel as His firstborn son among the nations (see Exodus 4:22). Through Israel—heirs of His covenant with Abraham—God planned to reveal Himself as the Father of all nations (see Genesis 22:18). The memory of God's covenant testing of Abraham—and Abraham's faithful obedience—lies behind today's Gospel. In commanding Abraham to offer his only beloved son (see Genesis 22:2, 12, 16), God was preparing us for the fullest possible revelation of His love for the world. As Abraham was willing to offer Isaac, God did not spare His own Son but handed Him over for us all (see Romans 8:32). In this, He revealed what was only disclosed partially to Moses—that His kindness continues for a thousand generations, that He forgives our sin and takes us back as His very own people (see Deuteronomy 4:20; 9:29). Jesus humbled Himself to die in obedience to God's will. And for this, the Spirit of God raised Him from the dead (see Romans 8:11), and gave Him a name above every name (see Philippians 2:8–10). This is the name we glorify in today's Responsorial: the name of our Lord, the God who is Love (see 1 John 4, 8, 16).

FIRST HOLY COMMUNION

Congratulations to all the children from our parish who received our Eucharistic Lord for the first time throughout the month of May. We pray, through the example and faithfulness of their parents and family, these children will continue to grow in the knowledge and love of God and continue to receive Jesus in holy communion throughout their lives.

A special thank you to our dedicated coordinator Kimberly Bubnic and her faithful team of volunteers who prepared the children for this Sacrament.

LIVING ROSARY—THANK YOU!

We had our annual Living Rosary this past weekend for the first time after the pandemic.

A big thank you to the committee members who helped in the organization. A special thank you to everyone who helped with the set-up, the clean-up and with the donation of food.

It was a beautiful rosary and benediction on a beautiful day to honour our Blessed Mother Mary.

HANDICRAFT HOLY LAND CHRISTIANS

On the weekend of June 10-11, we will welcome our special guest from Sebastien Cardinal's team representing "Handicraft Holy Land Christians", who after all the masses will briefly address the issues and concerns regarding the Christian presence in the Holy Land.

Christians in the Holy Land graciously ask your support through conscious prayers and will have many unique hand carved olive wood religious art pieces made by these families in Bethlehem available for purchase after every mass.

Proceeds of the sales generate much needed employment for our Christian brothers and sisters in Bethlehem.

May God Bless you for your generosity, for your help and for your prayers."

Cash, debit, credit cards and cheques will be accepted.

You can visit and support us at www.HolylandChristians.ca

ShareLife

This weekend is our 3rd Sharelife collection. Thanks to your generosity we have reached 60% of our goal and collected $46,154.

Your gift to ShareLife supports over 40 agencies in our community and around the world, serving all regardless of religious affiliation.

Please give generously.
