JULY 19TH, 2026 16TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

CYCLE A (MATTHEW)

Of Wheat and Weeds: Scott Hahn Reflects on the Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Readings:

Wisdom 12:13, 16–19

Psalms 86:5–6, 9–10, 15–16

Romans 8:26–27

Matthew 13:24–43

God is always teaching His people, as we hear in today's First Reading. And what does He want us to know? That He has cared for all of us; that though He is a God of justice, even those who defy and disbelieve Him may hope for His mercy if they turn to Him in repentance. This divine teaching continues in the three parables that Jesus tells in the Gospel today. Each describes the emergence of the kingdom of God from the seeds sown by His works and preaching. The kingdom's growth is hidden like the working of yeast in bread; it's improbable, unexpected, as in the way the tall mustard tree grows from the smallest of seeds. Again, this week's readings sound a note of questioning: Why does God permit the evil to grow alongside the good? Why does He permit some to reject the Word of His kingdom? Because, as we sing in today's Psalm, God is slow to anger and abounding in kindness. He is just, Jesus assures us—evildoers and those who cause others to sin will be thrown into the fiery furnace at the end of the age. But by His patience God is teaching us that above all He desires repentance and the gathering of all nations to worship Him and to glorify His name. Even though we don't know how to pray as we ought, the Spirit will intercede for us, Paul promises in today's Epistle. But first, we must turn and call upon Him. We must commit ourselves to letting the good seed of His Word bear fruit in our lives. So, we should not be deceived or lose heart when we see weeds among the wheat—truth and holiness mixed with error, injustice, and sin. For now, He makes His sun rise on the good and the bad (see Matthew 5:45). But the harvest draws near. Let's work so that we might be numbered among the righteous children—who will shine like the sun in the kingdom of the Father.

Thank you to Dr. Scott Hahn and the St. Paul Center for the use of the weekly Mass reflections. More resources are available at www.stpaulcenter.com

SACRAMENTAL INFORMATION

First Reconciliation & First Holy Communion

At St. Boniface Parish, we look forward to accompanying families as they prepare for these beautiful milestones in their faith journey. Children preparing for these sacraments are encouraged to participate regularly in Sunday Mass with their families, as faith is nurtured first within the parish community.

Registration for our Sacramental Preparation Program will take place this fall. Parent Information Meetings and registration dates will be announced beginning in September through the parish bulletin, at all weekend Masses, and through our local Catholic schools.

Please note that registration is available only during the announced registration period, so we encourage families to watch for these important dates.

Confirmation

The Sacrament of Confirmation completes the grace of Baptism through the gift of the Holy Spirit, strengthening young people to live and witness to their Catholic faith with confidence and joy.

Parent Information Meetings and registration for Confirmation will also take place this fall. Dates and details will be published in the parish bulletin beginning in September.

For information email: sacraments@stbcc.ca
