SCOTT HAHN REFLECTS ON THE 33RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The day of the Lord is coming, Paul warns in today's Epistle. What matters isn't the time or the season but what the Lord finds us doing with the new life, the graces He has given to us. This is at the heart of Jesus' parable in today's Gospel. Jesus is the Master. Having died, risen, and ascended into heaven, He appears to have gone away for a long time. By our Baptism, He has entrusted to each of us a portion of His "possessions," a share in His divine life (see 2 Peter 1:4). He has given us talents and responsibilities according to the measure of our faith (see Romans 12:3–8). We are to be like the worthy wife in today's First Reading and the faithful man we sing of in today's Psalm. Like them, we should walk in the "fear of the Lord"—in reverence, awe, and thanksgiving for His marvelous gifts. This is the beginning of wisdom (see Acts 9:31; Proverbs 1:7). This is not the "fear" of the useless servant in today's parable. His is the fear of a slave cowering before a cruel master, the fear of one who refuses the relationship that God calls us to. God has called us to be trusted servants, fellow workers (see 1 Corinthians 3:9), using our talents to serve one another and His kingdom as good stewards of His grace (see 1 Peter 4:10). In this, we each have a different part to play. Though the good servants in today's parable were given different numbers of talents, each "doubled" what he was given. And each earned the same reward for his faithfulness—greater responsibilities and a share of the Master's joy. So let us resolve again in this Eucharist to make much of what we've been given, to do all for the glory of God (see 1 Corinthians 10:31). That we, too, may approach our Master with confidence and love when He comes to settle accounts.

Readings:

Proverbs 31:10–13, 19–20, 30–31
Psalm 128:1–5
1 Thessalonians 5:1–6
Matthew 25:14–30

Society of Saint Vincent de Paul (SSVP) Special Christmas Collection

There will be a special Christmas Collection for the Society of Saint Vincent de Paul (SSVP) next weekend of November 21/22.

SSVP's mission is to live the Gospel message by serving Christ through the poor with love, respect, justice, and joy. At the 2025 World Day of the Poor, Pope Leo reminded us that: "The poor are not recipients of our pastoral care, but creative subjects who challenge us to find novel ways of living out the Gospel today."

Your donations are used at Christmas and throughout the year to support our neighbours in need with food or clothing vouchers.

Please give generously.

2027 Donation Envelopes

The 2027 donation envelopes are ready for pick-up in the narthex. They are arranged in alphabetical order. If you are not able to find your envelope of if you require new envelopes, please call the parish office.
